

Schools outreach programme

The story of the Roman invasion of Britain and the effects on British tribal culture nearly 2,000 years ago brought to life in your school..

Our service is fully risk-assessed and insured. staff carry full and enhanced CRB checks.

The Spiraling cost and associated issues for teachers planning education trips, has for some schools made it impossible to visit us in Chester. In response to this we provide a schools outreach programme across the U.K covering around 27,000 miles each year.

Dressed as a 1st Century Roman Soldier (other character roles available) We engage pupils through curriculum-relevant role play, character acting, questioning and activities. Providing a unique and dynamic educational experience around the period of the Roman invasion and settlement of Britain. Our costume and equipment, are exact copies of real artefacts and equipment found through archaeology investigation. We can specially tailor sessions for all schools and also cater for disabilities and special needs.

Topics provided

- Life of the soldier,
- Impact on British culture,
- Romano British society,
- Medicine,
- Military training and drill,
- Towns, roads, Trade and sanitation,
- ladies make up, and lifestyles and luxuries.
- Citizenship
- Life in the arena

Our visits are always interactive

- Dressing pupil in armor,
- Marching and formation practice including the tortoise (testudo), We provide the shields you provide the missiles.
- Full marching pack (impedimenta), which includes the soldier's rations, underwear, fire lighting kit, money, spare clothes, strigil, cooking pots, tools, and a sponge to .... well you will find out.
- Various artefacts including domestic pottery, jewellery, oil lamps, magnifiers, glassware and grinding stones.
- Medical Tools

We have a considerable amount of information that can be put over in a visit, so the longer our sessions with each class the better. Each visit is individually tailored to suit the teacher's planning on the subject. They are a fun and unique educational experience for both the pupils and staff
